LA VILLA MAURESQUE

Saint Raphaël

Perched right on the sea front, between Cannes and St Tropez, the Villa Mauresque was built in 1860 by Chapoulard, the architect renown for his magnificent Moorish villas in the Riviera. This property, due to its location and historical importance, is one of the few listed properties in the Côte d'Azur open to the privileged few who seek comfort, calm and luxury.

A warm, yet discrete welcome awaits guests. Most rooms have a distinct Moorish style and are very spacious with high ceilings and grand windows with breathtaking views of the Bay of St Tropez and the port of Boulouris. With its own private port and yacht, lapped by the waves of the Mediterranean, the villa is ideally situated for guests to go sailing, waterskiing, scuba diving, canoeing and kayaking.

Over an acre of beautifully manicured gardens, surrounded by the swimming pool, the bougainvilleas and the palm trees, La Villa Mauresque is an ultimate haven where guests are truly privileged.
